		Stories from the centre team(stories of overcoming the moment of student dropping off) – How the students was consulted and what kind of wisdom was shared		One student was out of contact last week as she had lost her phone and did not turn up to class. Her maintainer waited outside her apartment to catch her as she went to work and so was able to find the reason for her absence and make a solution for her. She is back in the class.
Next week Plan	*If there is any activity related with centre opening, Passover, centre completion (including centre completion test), and graduation test, do include in the report.
